PERSONAL SUMMARY

Over 34 years of global and cultural immersion experience. As a recently retired Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Chaplaincy, with a prior enlisted background in infantry and international business sales, I bring a unique blend of frontline insight and pastoral and servant leadership. Over my military career, I provided extensive counseling and religious support operations support to all Service Members across all ranks and branches, including those within Special Operations Forces.

My experience is deeply rooted in operational ministry, organizational leadership, and crisis management in domestic and overseas settings. I have consistently demonstrated creativity in chapel programming and community outreach, building strong, resilient spiritual support systems. However, my main strengths also include internal operations, personnel management, and force structure coordination, making me well-equipped to lead and adapt in dynamic environments.

Tactically proficient, operationally competent, strategically trained, spiritually mature, and Resilient. I received the following strengths by Gallup StrengthsFinder: Context, Strategic, Achiever, Activator, and Futuristic.

Language: English and Korean (Native-Upper-Level Defense Language Proficiency Test).
